This fast-paced stage adaptation of Alice in Wonderland features updated dialogue and new arrangements of such classic Disney songs as "I'm Late," "The Un-birthday Song" and "Zip-A-Dee-Doo-Dah." The production is based on the 1951 Disney film "Alice in Wonderland" and the novel by Lewis Carroll. Book adaptation and additional lyrics are by David Simpatico. Music adaptation/arrangement and additional music and lyrics are by Bryan Louiselle.

There are roles for over twenty-four boys and girls in third to ninth grades. All those auditioning will cold sing and read from the script, with no advance preparation. Music and scripts will be available at the auditions. A special mandatory meeting with the parents will be held during auditions.

Karen Curnutte will be the Musical Director and Production Director. Max Jackson, Music Professor Emeritus, will be the accompanist. Edward Figgins, Director of Theatre, is the Producer and Scenic/Lighting Designer. Paula Krepisik will be the Costume Designer. ACTC Theatre students will assist with the production.
