PORTAL PROGRAM COURSES

Students needing developmental writing or math courses and willing to work diligently and attend class religiously are invited to apply for this group of accelerated classes that will provide opportunity to complete 137BIO Anatomy and Physiology I or 171PH Applied Physics along with developmental writing and two math classes. Taking classes in two or more of these areas qualifies the student to take the special integrated section of 100CIS Intro to Computing also. These classes are taught by a team of instructors and the content is integrated.

See a Master Advisor for enrollment. Call Pam Duell (606.326.2036), Mary Cat Flath (606.326.2099), Bob Chaffins (606.326.2478) or Jim Schmidt (606.326.2096) for further details. Enrollment is limited. The 91ENC is free (no additional credit) if taken with 90ENC. The 65MT-01P1 may be taken for credit or is free (no credit or pay a fee for credit by exam) if taken with 55MT-01P1.
